What is the purpose of the OSHA consulting service?

- A. Helps employers identify the OSHA standards that apply to their workplace
- B. Does not require compliance with OSHA standards
- C. Acts as a one-time service
- D. Fines employers for violating OSHA safety standards

Answer: A

Explanation:

Explanation/Reference:

Answer option A is correct.

OSHA consultants provide free services to assist employers in identifying workplace hazards and the standards that apply in their workplaces. The consulting service requires employers to abate any hazards that are identified during the consultation but does not fine them for violations. To receive a free consultation, employers must agree to advise OSHA of changes in operating processes that may require additional consultations. See Chapter 8 for more information.
