NEW QUESTION: 2

You have a Lync Server 2013 infrastructure and a Microsoft Exchange Server 2010 Service Pack 2 (SP2) organization that has Unified Messaging (UM) enabled. You plan to configure the infrastructure to support three languages for Subscriber Access. You need to identify the minimum number of access numbers and dial plans required for the planned configuration. How many access numbers and dial plans should you identify? To answer, select the appropriate number of access numbers and dial plans in the answer area.

Hot Area:

Answer:

Explanation:

Explanation:

Languages are associated with dial-in access numbers. If you support geographical areas that have multiple languages, you should decide how you want to define regions to support the multiple languages. For example, you might define multiple regions based on a combination of geography and language, or you might define a single region based on geography and have a different dial-in access numbers for each language.
